Position in the project:	Post-doc (adjunct)
Scientific discipline:	microbiology, genomics
Job type (employment contract/stipend):	employment contract
Number of job offers:	1
Remuneration/stipend amount/month	15 000 PLN of full remuneration cost, i.e. expected net salary at around 9600 PLN for a senior postdoctoral researcher (6-9 years after obtaining the PhD diploma) or 10 000 PLN of full remuneration cost, i.e. expected net salary at around 6 300 PLN for a junior postdoctoral researcher (up to 5 years after obtaining the PhD diploma)
Position starts on:	1.05.2022
Maximum period of contract/stipend agreement:	17 months
Institution:	Lublin University of Technology, Faculty of Civil Engineering and Architecture / Lublin The employment will be carried out in cooperation with the University of Warsaw as part of the FUNash project within the TEAM-NET programme of the Foundation for Polish Science; place of work - Faculty of Biology, University of Warsaw, Warsaw, Poland
Project leader:	Prof. Wojciech Franus
Project title:	Fly ashes as the precursors of functionalized materials for applications in environmental engineering, civil engineering and agriculture Project is carried out within the TEAM-NET programme of the Foundation for Polish Science
Project description:	This TEAM-NET joint project assumes using fly ashes as a precursors for the synthesis of novel functionalized materials with the structure of not only zeolites, but also mesoporous silica materials and metal-organic frameworks (MOFs). Then produced materials will be tested for possible applications in agriculture, civil and environmental engineering. With the implementation of new technologies of coal combustion and flue gas treatment, new types of fly ashes with increased content of unburned carbon (up to 30%) have been produced. Such byproducts will be used in this project for the synthesis of novel zeolite-carbon composites. Previous work related to the use of this type of fly ashes was focused on the separate production of zeolites or activated carbons, which did not fully exploit the potential of the above-mentioned byproducts. Their use as a precursor to the synthesis of a zeolite-carbon-vermiculite composite in this project will also pave the way for developing a novel material to replace vermiculite raw materials in agricultural applications. With this announcement, we are looking for a Postdoc for the work-package #2 " Novel (bio-)mineral mixtures for civil engineering". The aim of WP #2 is among others the development of the technique of microbially and/or enzyme induced calcium carbonate precipitation for sandy soil bio-cementation and self-healing concrete purposes.
Key responsibilities include:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Selection, identification and characterization of bacteria inducing calcium carbonate precipitation (e.g. urea-degrading bacteria). 2. Bioprocess engineering of strains towards biocement production and bioconsolidation of soil. 3. Preparing and writing scientific articles for international journals. 4. Tracking current research trends in the scientific literature.

Profile of candidates/requirements:

1. The candidate must be a junior researcher (up to 5 years after obtaining the PhD diploma) or senior researcher (6 - 9 years after obtaining the PhD diploma).
2. The candidate must be experienced in microbiology and genomics of environmental isolates (preferentially, bacteria inducing calcium carbonate precipitation)
3. The candidate should have knowledge on microbiologically-induced calcium carbonate precipitation processes and their practical application.
4. The candidate must be an author of at least five scientific publications published in journals from the JCR list (including at least two articles as first/last/corresponding author).
5. The candidate must be fluent in English (both speaking and writing) enabling communication and understanding of publication texts.
6. Preferentially, the candidate should have an experience in obtaining funds for the researches from external project-funding agencies.

Required documents:

1. Written application for the competition.
2. Cover letter
3. Prepare your Curriculum vitae ONLY according to the below-mentioned structure. Curriculum vitae including (with the note "I agree to the processing of personal data provided in this document for realising the recruitment process pursuant to the Personal Data Protection Act of 10 May 2018 (Journal of Laws 2018, item 1000) and in agreement with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation)":
 - 2.1. A detailed description of the academic degrees and titles, titles of theses (master and doctoral, along with short description of main achievements in each thesis – up to 300 characters including spaces), years of receiving the degree/academic title, names and affiliation of supervisors and reviewers of each thesis.
 - 2.2. The academic career – chronological indication of places of employment with the indication of posts and contact details of the direct supervisor.
 - 2.3. List of scientific publications/monographs/books/chapters – including the full list of authors, indication whether the candidate was the corresponding author of the given publication, title, full title of the journal and 5-year IF.
 - 2.4. List of conducted scientific projects (as the coordinator/principal investigator) funded by external project-funding agencies – entries should be provided with the project title, project number, the amount of funding, time of project realization, all documents (including patents, patent applications, know-how, etc.) produced in the course of project realization.
 - 2.6. Participation in conferences (list of conferences in which the candidate took active part, stating whether it was a lecture or a poster), internships abroad (research stays) and most important trainings.
 - 2.7. List of awards and distinctions including their range (international/national),
 - 2.8. Other activities (scientific clubs/circles, student conferences) and information (e.g. patents, patent application, commercial).
4. Recommendation letter from the last employer (direct supervisor) and address details of 2 other scientists who may recommend the given candidate. Alternatively, the recommendation letter can be emailed by former supervisor directly to j.fronczyk@pollub.pl
5. Copies of obtained diplomas.

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. Documented information about completed courses, trainings ect.. 7. Signed personal questionnaire of the candidate applying for the employment - Declaration No. 1. 8. Signed Declaration No. 2 9. Signed Declaration No. 3.
Please submit the following documents to:	All documents must be sent as a single PDF file (if too big, the copies of diplomas may be sent as an independent file) by email to j.fronczyk@pollub.pl , indicating the reference mentioned in the beginning of this call, in the subject line.
Application deadline:	20.03.2022
